

Building Local Capacity to Engage in Advocacy

GLOBAL NETWORK OF
YOUNG PEOPLE LIVING WITH HIV

Save the Children

Kingdom of the Netherlands

Activity

Participants should group as per their tables

Write down the policies that you know from your respective countries or region- including HIV or SRH-related policies

Present your notes!

Definitions

What is a Policy?

Defining a Policy

- A policy is a set of coherent decisions with a common long-term purpose
- A course or principle of action adopted or proposed by an organization or individual
- Important to note:
- A policy outlines what a government hopes to achieve and the methods and principles it will use to achieve them?
- Policies are usually explicit written documents, and they could also be implicit unwritten documents

What is a public policy?

Defining public policy

Public policy refers to actions taken by the government in a bid to solve problems and improve quality of life

It is basically what an institution be it a government, chooses to do or not to do

What is policy advocacy?

Defining Policy Advocacy

Policy advocacy refers to organized initiatives that seek to change official policy or legislation or the way these regulations are applied

Policy advocacy efforts typically try to establish new policies, improve existing policies or challenge the development of policies.

What is local level advocacy?

Defining Local level Advocacy

Local-level advocacy (also known as community-led advocacy) is advocacy driven by communities

It involves engaging and influencing policymakers and decision-makers, stakeholders, and relevant audiences in communities, such as local politicians, civil society groups, local authorities, community leaders, school boards

Approaches to Policy Advocacy

Approaches

01

Persuasion-Confidential dialogue with policymakers with the intention of changing their behaviour

02

Mobilisation- Rallying key stakeholders who can influence policymakers to change their behaviour

03

Denunciation- Publicly condemning a policy, hoping that public pressure will influence policymakers to act on the issue

Principles to Policy Advocacy

Principles

Meaningful involvement and leadership of the groups of people affected by the policy

Clarity of purpose- understand exactly how the policy is affecting the population and what exactly needs to be changed

Flexibility- the process is not always linear

Accountability to the advocacy cause itself and the people being represented

Evidence-based in order to inform/ influence the decision makers and the communities to mobilise more support

Questions

Activity group work

Participants to go back in the same groups as before

Participants to come up with actions they believe young people can take to influence local policy or decision-making in their community- as many as they can

Time: 5 minutes